OUR PRIVACY POLICY

We are serious about your Security

We understand the trust you have put in us with the most important information and documents you own. The information that you upload is encrypted and protected with industry-standard technology and security.

Securing Your Data

Under our systems, your data is stored using AES-256 encryption with a uniquely derived key for each user. We encrypt every single personally identifiable field in the database, including your name and email address.

As with all digital systems, the security of your information depends to a great extent on you. Choose a strong password (we enforce that as best we can) and never share it with anyone including your Deputies.

Operational Procedures to Keep the Site Secure

We follow best practices to keep your data secure. We regularly audit our environments and code for security issues and apply patches expeditiously.
